

Blessings in the New Year

In his 17th-century work The Country Parson, George Herbert reflects on the diminished use of blessings by both laity and clergy in his time. He wonders if perhaps it is due to conformity with worldly greetings and complements, or whether some might think them empty and superfluous. Reading his words today, I imagine that the use of blessings is even less common now than 400 years ago!

Blessings are often said in church. We end most services by saying to one another, 'Go in peace, to love and serve the Lord.' As we disperse, we declare that we live in the peace of Christ, and seek to love him and serve him in the world. Another commonly used blessing comes from Numbers 6:24-26, and may it be true for you in the New Year:

*"The LORD bless you and keep you;
the LORD make his face shine on you
and be gracious to you;
the LORD turn his face toward you
and give you peace."*

Blessing in the Bible is not primarily concerned with the things for which the term is most often used today. For example, material wealth, a happy family situation or a new job. In some cases, blessing means expressing gratitude on social media in the form of Christian humblebrag (#blessed) which dutifully links such worldly success to God. While these examples are nonetheless blessing from God, the central focus of Biblical blessing is a close personal relationship with the Lord. Knowing him, his love, and then afterwards enjoying all the good things he gives.

Finally, in the face of rising tensions across various groups in our society, it is important to reflect on who we should bless in our prayers, words and actions. Jesus directs us to bless widely, as God does:

"But to you who are listening I say: Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who mistreat you." (Luke 6:27-28)

May you be blessed by the Lord in the New Year and be a blessing to all.

Holidays are here!

We're delighted that you could join us today during this time of holidays. If you're taking some time off with family and friends then be sure to give thanks to God for the joy (and sometimes challenges) of relationships, as we hope for Heaven!

Children & Youth programs

During school holidays, our normal children's and youth programs take a break until February. Activity sheets will be available for children at our services.

Pursell family on holidays

Sam, Susan and the family will be taking a much deserved break from this Tuesday 6th January to Tuesday 20th January. The church office is open during regular hours and our Wardens (Geoff Kyngdon, Andy Peters and Ed Stanojevic) are also available if any matter arises.
